

Solid Reputation • Strong Foundation

BUILT ON TRUST

GreenHeart Companies has earned a reputation as the “go-to” partner for reliable results in commercial construction.

A reputation and strong foundation built on trust. You can rely on us to work closely with you through every phase of construction, from project development to final completion.

You have our pledge to provide the level of customer satisfaction that wins your business and earns your trust.

We’ve worked hard to earn our reputation as the best commercial construction company. Keeping projects moving forward safely, on time and on budget and turning your visions into reality.

GreenHeart looks forward to becoming your trusted partner in the success of all your commercial construction projects.

Trusted Partner

6001 Southern Blvd • Suite 105 • Boardman, OH 44512

330.259.3070

GreenHeartCompanies.com

Brian Angelilli, President and Founder

Brian has over twenty years of experience in the commercial and residential construction industry. Brian has led the evolution of GreenHeart from a small family business to and including services as a General Contractor, Construction Manager, and Sub-Contractor. His experience includes projects ranging from $100,000 to $12,000,000. As a Trusted Partner, he demonstrates attention to detail with the understanding that client relationships are the key to a good Contractor. His credentials include LEED AP Certification by the U.S. Green Building Council and course work at The Ohio State University.

Ed Kay, Project Manager

Ed has over thirty years of experience in the commercial construction industry with many successful project in his portfolio. As project manager of numerous commercial projects, Ed is a Trusted Partner for on-time and on-budget project management. Portfolio Projects include: shopping centers, tenant finishes, large box anchor stores and national brands that include Wendy's and Bob Evans.

Michael Marshall, Project Manager

Michael has over thirty years' experience in commercial construction and obtained his BS in Civil Engineering from Youngstown State University. As project manager of numerous commercial projects, Michael is a Trusted Partner for on-time project on budget project management. Portfolio projects include: field management of multi-million dollar malls, a two hundred room ten story hotel and national brands that include Dunkin Donuts, Dollar Tree, and Domino's.

William Brown, Superintendent Carpenter Forman

Bill manages our skilled carpenter division and has over twenty-five years of field experience performing and supervising work in multiple states. Bill is expert at finding solutions any obstacle. Specializing in rough wood metal carpentry, drywall, and acoustical ceiling, William can manage large complex projects with a calm thoughtful style.

Mike Angelilli, Project Coordinator

Mike has over fifteen years' experience in millwork and over five years as our project coordinator. Mike works closely with our project management team for on-time and under-budget performance. As project coordinator, mike is a key part of our project management team specializing in estimating. Mike has recently been part of the high profile national brand project management team.

John Angelilli, CFO and GM Window & Property Management Group

John has recently joined our team bringing over thirty years' experience in all facets of accounting, finance and operations. A career that began in public accounting and most recently as CFO/COO of a multi-million dollar company, John is a team leader in all respects. John was recognized as the 2010 MBA alumnus of the year by Youngstown State University's Williamson College of Business. John also has a BSBA in accounting and is Certified in Lean Enterprise Systems. Portfolio projects include a design-build food manufacturing plant and R&D Center.